Call for Proposals for CASAE 2022 Annual Conference

Submission Deadline: December 15, 2021

The Canadian Association for the Study of Adult Education invites you to submit a proposal to present at our 2022 Annual Conference. CASAE accepts proposals from scholars, students, and practitioners from around the world. The 2022 conference will be an online conference in association with the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences.

Proposals are peer reviewed and authors of accepted abstracts are expected to submit a paper for inclusion in the conference proceedings. Collaborative sessions are encouraged. Please note that any individual can be sole or lead author on only one proposal.

Types of Proposals and Sessions

Full Paper: Full papers report on empirical work completed or well underway, explore Theorization, or engage in a substantive analysis of the literature. Full papers (maximum 3,000 words not including references) are published in the conference proceedings.

Research Roundtable: Research roundtables provide an opportunity to discuss research in progress or theoretical or methodological issues. Roundtable papers (maximum 1,000 words not including references) are published in the conference proceedings.

Symposium: In a symposium, a group of three or more delegates present and discuss diverse or conflicting perspectives on a topic of interest to adult education practitioners and scholars. Symposium papers (maximum 4,000 words not including references) are published in the conference proceedings.

Typical information to include in proposal submissions are relationship to relevant literature, theoretical/conceptual framework, findings (if research-oriented), and implications for adult education. A list of sources referred to is not necessary in a proposal, but in-text citations should be included.

How to Submit Your Proposal

Paper, roundtable, and/or symposium proposals should meet the following criteria:

- 500 words in length
- include a header if longer than one page
- in Word or compatible format
- contain the full title of the proposal
- not include information that might identify the author or author affiliation

The following information is required in your submission:

- full title of your proposal
- names, affiliations, and e-mail addresses of all authors, with the lead author designated
- as such.

- the following warrant statement (to be pasted into the “Comments for the Editor” box on the first step of the submission):

I/We warrant that if my/our paper/roundtable/symposium proposal is accepted, I/we will submit a paper for inclusion in the conference proceedings. I/We agree that the paper will be no more than 3,000 words (for full papers), 1,000 words (for roundtables) or 4,000 words (for symposia).

I/We understand that if this paper is not submitted by April 1, 2022 my/our presentation will not be included in the CASAE 2022 conference or its proceedings.

Proposals should be submitted to the conference portal:
