Conference Proceedings

“Recovering Our Stories,
Rallying to Changes”

20th Anniversary Conference of Canadian Association for the Study of Adult Education

May 25-27, 2001

Laval University
Quebec City

Compiled and Edited by Tom Nesbit
Table of Contents

Cultivating knowledge: Learning and transformation in community supported agriculture
Mike Ambach .................................................................................................................. 1

Subsistence learning: An artful look into motherwork as a site of learning
Rose Barg ....................................................................................................................... 8

Non-governmental organizations and popular education programs: Can they mobilize culturally appropriate grassroots organizations in rural Bangladesh
Bijoy Barua .................................................................................................................. 14

The Learning organization: A diverse community of knowledge workers
Maureen Bogdanowicz, Elaine Bailey ........................................................................... 20

Learning in later life: Researchers’ initial impressions
Margaret Fisher Brillinger, Carole Roy .......................................................................... 26

Postcards from the edge: Towards a tribal postcolonial view of adult education
Shauna Butterwick, Michael Marker ........................................................................... 31

The reading strategies of adult basic education students
Pat Campbell, Grace Malicky ....................................................................................... 37

Feminist artist-educators and community revitalization: Case studies from Toronto
Darlene Clover ............................................................................................................. 43

Lifelong learning in the new economy: A great leap backwards
Jane Cruikshank ......................................................................................................... 49

Contribution à la réflexion andragogique sur «l’économie du savoir»
Par Francine D’Ortun .................................................................................................... 55

Adult literacy as social relations: A democratic theorizing
Richard Darville ........................................................................................................... 61

Learning to change: A grassroots program planning model
John Egan ...................................................................................................................... 67

Global adult education, justice and spirituality
Leona English .............................................................................................................. 72

Dimensions of spirituality: A framework for adult educators
Tara Fenwick, Leona English, Jim Parsons .................................................................... 78

Canadian research in adult education in the 1990’s: A cautious cartography
Tara Fenwick, Shahrzad Mojab, Shauna Butterwick ................................................... 86

The parent they knew and the “new” parent: Daughters’ perceptions with dementia of the Alzheimer
Linda Furlini ............................................................................................................... 93

Being, becoming and belonging as a queer citizen educator: The places of queer autobiography, queer culture as community, and fugitive knowledge
André Grace .............................................................................................................. 100

A search for sustainable livelihoods within global marketplaces: Stories of learning and change among rural artisans in Thailand
Carolyn Jongeward ..................................................................................................... 107

Re-membering and re-picturing activist mothers: The Canadian Woman’s Christian Temperance Union and the audiovisual rhetoric of “home protection”
Spirituality as a sustaining dimension of the transformational learning process: Surviving psychological wife abuse
Maureen McCallum

The impact of globalization on human rights: The challenge for adult educators
Derek Mulenga

Creating new stories: Exploring the restructuring of university adult education in Ireland and Scotland
Mark Murphy, Brenda Morgan-Klein

Graduate students’ perspectives on adult education
Tom Nesbit, Edward Taylor

Les nouveaux du travail et de la carrière
Danielle Riverin-Samard

The pitfalls and possibilities of labour movement-based e-learning
Peter Sawchuk

Enlightenment and engagement in adult education for democratic citizenship: Lessons from the Citizens’ Forum and the Participatory Budget
Daniel Schugurensky

Agency in the knowledge society: Social movements and knowledge creation
James Sharpe

Community sustainability and lifelong learning: Two sides of our future well-being Jennifer Sumner

The experience of story telling: Being told stories & telling my own
Debra Whitman

Roundtable Discussion:

Spaces for community development: Lost and found, a roundtable discussion
Pramila Aggarwal, Bill Fallis, Bob Luker

Academic adult education and the vocation of intellectual work: Conditions and quandaries
Jane Dawson

Facilitating more servant leadership and stewardship
Kathleen Dodman-Kevany

The master’s tools: Critical adult learning in a web-based adult education course
Budd Hall

From marginalized to mainstream: Different stories, similar needs encounters with diverse groups in the practice of adult education
Cheryl Jeffs, Kate Briscoe, Linda Furlini, Mary Jo Gascon

Learning the story: Toward a narrative model of helping in rural communities
Bill Randall, Rosemary Clews

Building sustainable communities – profits and losses!
R.J. Moreland